

APPENDIX BSTATUTORY RULES NOT REPRODUCED

Statutory rules containing no substantive provisions other than amendments or revocations of other rules and those containing standard common-form transitional provisions which are no longer considered appropriate for inclusion in the main text of this work are set out in this Appendix. Statutory rules which have been wholly revoked or have wholly lapsed through repeal of powers are not included.

This Appendix does not include those statutory rules relating to—

- (a) occupational and personal pensions and contracting-out which would otherwise be appropriate for inclusion in Volume 5; and
- (b) housing benefit which would otherwise be appropriate for inclusion in Volume 8.

A separate list of Statutory Rules not Reproduced is included in each of those Volumes.

This Appendix does not acknowledge amendments to child support or tax credits legislation which are outside the scope of this work.
