14.—(1) Where a rent is registered in respect of a dwelling under Part IV, V or VI of the Rent (Northern Ireland) Order 1978(a) and the rent recoverable from a claimant is limited to the rent so registered, his eligible rent determined in accordance with regulation 13 shall not exceed the rent so registered.

(2) The appropriate authority shall consider—

- (b) whether the rates payable for the claimant’s dwelling are unreasonably high by comparison with the rates payable in respect of suitable alternative accommodation elsewhere; or
- (c) whether the rent payable for his dwelling is unreasonably high by comparison with the rent payable in respect of suitable alternative accommodation elsewhere, and, where it appears to the authority that the dwelling is larger than is reasonably required or that the rates are, or as the case may be, the rent is unreasonably high, the authority shall, subject to paragraphs (3) to (6), treat the claimant’s eligible rates, or as the case may be, eligible rent, as reduced by such amount as it considers appropriate having regard in particular to the cost of suitable alternative accommodation elsewhere and the claimant’s maximum housing benefit shall be calculated by reference to the eligible rates or eligible rent as so reduced.

into account the relevant factors, it is reasonable to expect the claimant to move from his present accommodation.

(5) No reduction shall be made under paragraph (2) for a period of 12 months from the date of death of any person to whom paragraph (10) applied or, had a claim been made, would have applied, if the dwelling which the claimant occupies is the same as that occupied by him at that date except where the reduction began before the death occurred.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5), a claimant shall be treated as occupying the dwelling if paragraph (13) of regulation 7 (circumstances in which a person is or is not to be treated as occupying a dwelling as his home) is satisfied and for that purpose sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph shall be treated as if it were omitted.

(7) Without prejudice to the operation of paragraph (3), but subject to paragraph (8), where the relevant authority is satisfied that a person to whom paragraph (10) applies was able to meet the financial commitments for his dwelling when they were entered into, no deduction shall be made under paragraph (2) during the first 13 benefit weeks of the claimant's benefit period.

(8) Paragraph (7) shall not apply where a claimant was previously entitled to benefit in respect of a benefit period which fell wholly or partly less than 52 weeks before the commencement of his current benefit period.

(9) For the purposes of this regulation—

- (a) in deciding what is suitable alternative accommodation, the appropriate authority shall take account of the nature of the alternative accommodation and the facilities provided having regard to the age and state of health of all the persons to whom paragraph (10) applies and, in particular, where a claimant's present dwelling is occupied with security of tenure, accommodation shall not be treated as suitable alternative accommodation unless that accommodation will be occupied on terms which will afford security of tenure reasonably equivalent to that presently enjoyed by the claimant; and
- (b) the relevant factors in paragraph (3) are the effects of a move to alternative accommodation on—
 - (i) the claimant's prospects of retaining his employment; and
 - (ii) the education of any child or young person referred to in paragraph (3)(d) if such a move were to result in a change of school.

(11) Paragraph (10)(d) shall only apply to a relative who has no separate right of occupation of the dwelling which would enable him to continue to occupy it even if the claimant ceased his occupation of it.”.

(3) For the purposes of regulation 13(3) of both the Housing Benefit Regulations and the Housing Benefit (State Pension Credit) Regulations, as inserted by paragraph (1), regulation 14ZA of both those Regulations is as follows—

- (a) that the increase is unreasonably high having regard in particular to the level of increases for suitable alternative accommodation; or
- (b) in the case of an increase which takes place less than 12 months after the date of the previous increase, that the increase is unreasonable having regard to the length of time since the previous increase, treat the eligible rent as reduced either by the full amount of the increase or, if it considers that a lesser increase was reasonable in all the circumstances, by the difference between the full amount of the increase and the increase that is reasonable having regard in particular to the level of increases for suitable alternative accommodation, and the claimant’s maximum housing benefit shall be calculated by reference to the eligible rent as so reduced.

(2) No reduction shall be made under this regulation for a period of 12 months from the date of death of any person to whom regulation 14(9) applied or, had a claim been made, would have applied, if the dwelling which the claimant occupies is the same as that occupied by him at that date except where the reduction began before the death occurred.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), a claimant shall be treated as occupying the dwelling if paragraph (13) of regulation 7 is satisfied and for that purpose sub-paragraph (b) of that paragraph shall be treated as if it were omitted.”.
